

Vasconia

CUADERNOS DE HISTORIA-GEOGRAFÍA

VASCONIA 40, 1-122, DONOSTIA 2014; ISSN: 1136-6834; eISSN: 2386-5539

Analytic Summary

40

Copying of the summary pages is authorised

Ramos Martínez, Jon A; (Univ. del País Vasco (UPV/EHU); Hernández, José A. (Universidad de La Sabana): Emigración y misión: El periplo neogranadino del Padre Nicasio Eguíluz (1843-1861) (Emigration and mission: The neogranadine periplos of Father Nicasio Eguíluz (1843-861) (Orig. es)

In: Vasconia. Cuadernos de Historia-Geografía. 40, 5-25

Abstract: The missional and migratory peripetia of Father Eguíluz serves as common thread to understand the peculiarity of Spanish religious emigration to Latin America. Parallel to economic emigration, and to a less extent than political one, there was this kind of migration by members of the Church, constant till the XX century, and one that had to face political avatars specific to young american republics, deeply imbued of a pronounced illustrated character, clashing most of the time with the ecclesiastical institution, in this case the very special Society of Jesus. Nicasio Eguíluz will experience, due to his membership to the Society of Jesus, ejections, comebacks, unended peripls, sicknesses, etc., but also the solidarity of the other America, the conservative and hispanic one, which will grant him its support, in New Granada as well as in Cuba.

Key words: Emigration. America. Colombia. Jesuits. Autobiographies

Ruiz Astiz, Javier (Universidad Pública de Navarra-Nafarroako Unibertsitate Publikoa) “Trastornar el orden y tranquilidad”: pasquines difamatorios en Navarra a principios del siglo XIX (“Upset the order and tranquility”: defamatory lampoons in the early nineteenth Navarre ) (Orig. es)

In: Vasconia. Cuadernos de Historia-Geografía. 40, 27-58

Abstract: The first decades of the nineteenth century were extremely controversial in the kingdom of Navarre. The crisis of the ancien régime was already palpable. A clear sign of the social and political situation was the constant appearance of public disorder throughout its geography. Among them I will try to highlight the important role of the defamatory lampoons published. The aim of libels and lampoons was to denounce and cause greater instability at community level. This situation encouraged the navarrese civil authorities to try to curb the harmful consequences originated.

Analytic Summary

Keywords: Pasquin. Insult. Conflict. Public order. Kingdom of Navarre.

Belaustegi Bedialauneta, Unai (UPV/EHUko irakasle eta ikertzailea): Gipuzkoako errepublikanismoaren azterketa prosopografikoa (1868-1923) (Análisis prosopográfico del republicanismo guipuzcoano (1868-1923) (Orig. eus)
In: Vasconia. Cuadernos de Historia-Geografía. 40, 59-90

Abstract: Into the extensive research on republicanism of Gipuzkoa [Basque Country, Spain] during 1868-1923, we wanted to define the republican actors profiles. For that, we built a very specific biographies and we have compared those biographies to make a prosopographic analysis. Our goal was the better understand of the republican political culture. In our opinion, the profile of the members of the group determines the profile of all the group, so this research offers a wider explanation of the republicanism before the II. Spanish Republic.

Key-words: Republicanism. Republic. Biography. Prosopography. Liberalism. Liberal professions.

Erkoreka Gonzalez, Mikel (Doktoretza-aurreko ikertzailea. Euskal Herriko Unibertsitatea (UPV/EHU): Bizkaiko krisi industrialaren azterketa (1929-1936): Langabezia eta krisi fiskala (The study of the industrial crisis in Biscay (1929-1936): Unemployment and fiscal crisis) (Orig. eus)

In: Vasconia. Cuadernos de Historia-Geografía. 40, 91-119

Abstract: This article analyses the industrial crisis that Biscay suffered after 1929. On the one hand, this work examines the arising factors of the crisis and systematize its stages. Moreover, the article studies the effects of the industrial crisis on the Biscayan labour market and the provincial tax collection.

Keywords: Basque Country. The Second Republic. Economic crisis. Industrial crisis. Unemployment. Taxation.